

CONTENTS

Preface	xiii
Contributors	xv
Glossary, acronyms and abbreviations	xvii

PART I: INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW

1 Introduction
Vinod K. Aggarwal and Brigitte Granville
2 The Evolution of Debt Crises: Origins, Management and Policy Lessons
Vinod K. Aggarwal
2.1 Introduction
2.2 Origins of debt crises
The 1820s–1860s
The 1870s to 1914
The 1920s–1960s
The 1970s–1990s
The Mexican peso crisis of 1994
Origins of the 1990s Asian crisis: Thailand and South Korea
Debt forgiveness? The origins of the HIPC initiative
2.3 Comparing debt crisis management
The 1820s–1860s
The 1870s–1920s
Mexico and Peru in the 1920s–1950s
The 1980s
The Mexican peso crisis of 1994
The 1990s Asian crisis: resolving debt problems in Thailand and South Korea
Thailand
South Korea

- HIPC and the emergence of debt forgiveness*
- 2.4 Lessons on the role of creditor governments
- 2.5 Conclusion
- References

3 Strengthening the Link Between Debt Relief and Poverty Reduction:
the HIPC Initiative

Brigitte Granville

- 3.1 Introduction
- 3.2 Debt for what?
 - Financing public debt*
- 3.3 HIPC2: Can it prevent new debts?
 - Methodology*
 - Target levels*
 - The choice of indicators*
 - Can debt relief work?*
- 3.4 Conclusion
- References

PART II: INTERNATIONAL CAPITAL MARKETS AND DEBT

4 The Structure of International Capital Markets

Deepak Lal

- 4.1 Introduction
- 4.2 Evolution of the international capital markets in the postwar era
- 4.3 Common features and lessons of recent debt crises
- 4.4 The global financial infrastructure
- References

5 Different Market Windows on Sovereign Debt: Private-sector
Credit from the 1980s to the Present

Daniel McGovern

- 5.1 Three decades of private credit to sovereigns
- 5.2 Commercial bank financing: experiences of the 1980s
 - Phase I: Systemic risk*
 - Phase II: Building provisions and primary capital*
 - Phase III: Confrontation – IMF lending to delinquent sovereigns*
 - Phase IV: Endgame – commercial banks exit sovereign lending*
- 5.3 Bond financing and new instruments in the 1990s
 - The new era of bond financing*
 - New investors and their regulators*
 - New instruments and market activity*
 - New management practices and concerns*

Impact of the new environment on sovereign debt management
Commercial banks and the London Club process
The passing of the London Club
Sovereign crises in the 1990s
Does the financial system need a new sovereign restructuring mechanism?
Sovereign debt restructuring as a process

5.4 Conclusion

References

6 Measuring, Monitoring and Managing National Balance Sheets*Liz Dixon, Andrew G. Haldane and Simon Hayes*

6.1 Introduction

6.2 Financial crises and balance sheets: theory and evidence

6.3 Measuring national balance sheets

6.4 Monitoring national balance sheets

Data issuesWorld Bank debt tablesBIS international banking statisticsThe IMF's International Financial StatisticsCountry-specific data sourcesBenchmarking issues

6.5 Managing national balance sheets

The IMF's Special Data Dissemination StandardSovereign debt and reserves management guidelinesCore principles for banking supervisionThe Financial Sector Assessment Programme

6.6 Conclusions

Appendix

References

PART III: DEBT MANAGEMENT

7 Developing Countries and the New Financial Architecture*Stephany Griffith-Jones*

7.1 Aims of reform of the international financial architecture

7.2 Progress on international financial reform

7.3 Better international information and financial regulation

Additional information on markets for developing countriesImproved international financial regulationThe case for regulationFilling gaps

Removing regulatory distortions and dampening exuberance of bank ending

Counter-cyclical elements in regulation

7.4 Conclusion

References

8 Bailouts, Moral Hazard and Burden-sharing

Robert B. Gray

9 Sovereign Liquidity Crises: the Strategic Case for a Payments Standstill

Marcus Miller and Lei Zhang

9.1 Bond valuation and corporate bankruptcy

9.2 Sovereign immunity and the Paris Club

9.3 Liquidity crises and the role of the IMF

Providing liquidity: the IMF as lender of last resort

Payment standstills: the IMF as a bankruptcy court

Lender of last resort and bankruptcy court combined

Bond values with 'sovereign immunity', and with a waiver

9.4 Why the rules of the game need to be changed

IMF bailouts: the 'time-consistency trap'

How a bail-in can reduce moral hazard

9.5 Conclusion: a Basle Club?

Appendices

A9.1 Rollovers and debt reductions: the Paris Club

A9.2 Lender of last resort and moral hazard

A9.3 Valuation of sovereign debt with 'watertight' immunity

A9.4 Collateralized debt with a bankruptcy code

A9.5 Collateralized debt without a bankruptcy code

References

Postscript: Sovereign Debt Restructuring: New Articles, New Contracts – or No Change?

Introduction and overview

Options on offer

Historical background

Statutory proposals

Contractual proposals

Status quo

Strategic considerations: keeping options open

Next steps

Conclusion: a two-track approach to reform

References

PART IV: NEW FORMS OF GOVERNANCE AND DEBT

10 The Paris Club and International Economic Governance: Double Crisis and DebtThomas M. Callaghy*

10.1 The management of sovereign debt crises

Thirty years of debt crisesInternational economic governanceThe Paris Club: performance and trends since the mid-1990sThe politics and economics of the evolution of Paris Club normsPakistan: a 'blend' of both typesOther politico-economic blendsSovereign debt and the double crisis: beyond the Paris Club

10.2 Conclusion: double crisis, and a world on the edge?

References

11 Moving Mountains (of Debt): NGOs, the HIPC Initiatives and the Decentralization of Multilateral Debt GovernanceEdward A. Fogarty*

11.1 Introduction

11.2 Theories of regimes and transnational social movements

Theories of regimes and regime changeTransnational social movement theory

11.3 The LDC debt regime: from Paris Club to HIPC

The Paris Club regimeNGOs and HIPC1NGOs and HIPC2

11.4 The HIPC regime as decentralized international governance

PRSPs and decentralized governance

11.5 Conclusion

Appendix: Excerpts from debt NGOs' mission statements

References

12 Lessons from Environmental Governance for Debt Forgiveness*Peter M. Haas*

12.1 Introduction

12.2 Linkage dynamics

12.3 Environmental regime-building

Characteristics of international environmental politicsForces in international environmental politicsNational leadershipNGOs and civil societyInternational institutions

Epistemic communities
The evolution of environmental governance
Explaining patterns of environmental regime-formation
Aggregate effects
Effectiveness
Limits to learning
12.4 Implications for debt forgiveness
12.5 Conclusion
References

PART V: LESSONS

13 Sovereign Debt Management: Lessons and Policy Implications

Vinod K. Aggarwal and Brigitte Granville 13.1 Big bailouts should end
13.2 A new role for the IMF?
13.3 Disorderly workouts are costly
13.4 The role of creditor governments and the issue of conditionality
References